(j.) To promote, organize, develop, manage, or assist in the production, organization, development, and management of any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, or undertaking having objects similar in whole or in part to those of the Company, and, as incidental thereto, to undertake, manage, control, or otherwise deal with the business and undertaking of any such corporation, company, firm, or individual for the purpose of protecting securities issued thereby and realizing upon the claims thereon:

(k.) To take or hold mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price, or for any unpaid balance of the purchase price, of any part of the Company's property of whatsoever kind sold by the Company, or any money due to the Company from purchasers, and to sell or otherwise dispose of said mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges:

(l.) To cause or allow the legal title, estate, and interest in any property or business acquired, established, or carried on by the Company to remain or to be vested or registered in the name of or carried on by any other company or companies, foreign or domestic, formed or to be formed, and either upon trust for or as agents or nominees of this Company, or upon any other terms or conditions which may be for the benefit of this Company, and to manage the affairs or take over and carry on the business of such company or companies so formed or to be formed, either by acquiring shares, stocks, or other securities thereof or otherwise howsoever, and to exercise all or any of the powers of holders of shares, stocks, or securities thereof, and to receive and distribute the dividends and interest on such shares, stocks, or securities:

(m.) To purchase, subscribe, or apply for, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire, register, hold, sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of or turn to account the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, notes, and other securities and evidences of interest in or indebtedness of, and all other interest in and claims upon, any persons, firm, voluntary association, trust, joint-stock company, or corporation, and while the owner or holder thereof to exercise, through such agent or agents as the directors may appoint, all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon:

(n.) To amalgamate, either by purchase, sale, or otherwise, with any person, partnership, or corporation engaged in a business similar in whole or in part to that which the Company is authorized to carry on:

(o.) To issue paid-up shares, bonds, debenture stock, and (or) other securities for the payment, either in whole or in part, of any property, real or personal, claims, privileges, licences, concessions, franchises, or other advantages which the Company may lawfully acquire, or for services rendered to or work performed for it, and also to issue such fully paid-up shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, and (or) other securities in payment or part payment or exchange for the shares, bonds, or debenture stock, and (or) other securities of any other company:

(p.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To guarantee the performance of contracts by any person, partnership, or corporation with which the Company has or proposes to have dealings:

(r.) To remunerate, either in cash or shares, fully paid-up, or in securities of the Company, any company, firm, association, syndicate, or individual for expenses incurred on behalf of and (or) services rendered or to be rendered to the Company:

(s.) To pay out of the funds of the Company any expenses incurred in connection with and incidental to the incorporation or organization of the Company:

(t.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(u.) To distribute among the shareholders of the Company, in kind, specie, or otherwise as may be resolved by way of dividend, bonus, or in any other manner deemed advisable, any property or assets of the Company, or in particular any shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of or in any other company belonging to this Company, or which it may have power to dispose of:

(v.) None of the clauses (c) to (u), inclusive, hereof or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary to the objects mentioned in clauses (a) to (b) hereof, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any of the said clauses (c) to (u), inclusive, in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of clauses (a) to (b), inclusive.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.PRIVATE BILLS.*EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
